Friday, 10 December 2013 Here is PDF report of board exam taken in the year 1972. It is in Malayalam and all this information is furnished here as I did not manage to get the same from the official website. Desh is a state with very high literacy rate and over 90% of people are able to read and write Malayalam. Literacy is the need of the hour and I hope in days to come we will have more efforts to eradicate illiteracy. Good Luck to all of you preparing for exams. May God bless you and guide you. 1973 With NakshatramrarArthor Arthor is a former Goan trader who worked in Singapore. In his introduction to The Chinese Porcelain Market: Consumption and Value, he talks about his experiences in the business. He says that at one time, Chinese porcelain was sold by the kilo and was bought mostly by European and American merchants. He says that the strong sales of porcelain in Singapore (which was known for its own pottery and porcelain) turned out to be an advantage for the Singaporean trade. Arthor became a key supplier for porcelain in Singapore, and it was one of his biggest customers. Arthor mentions that he wanted to start up his own business and so bought a kilo of blue and white pottery from Singapore's second Chinatown, Lim Teck Kim, with a friend. The two made money, but Arthor did not end up using the money to buy more pottery; instead, he kept it and used it to buy stocks for the Singaporean Market and to buy porcelain from Singaporean retailers. Arthor and other Singaporean traders were able to sell their goods to Chinese merchants in Guangzhou because the Singaporean goods f988f36e3a
